

Amos A. Workman, OF COUNSEL

Amos Workman focuses primarily on a mediation practice, mediating cases from the Family and Circuit courts. He also practices in the Family Courts. Amos also handles commercial real estate transactions, leases and other real estate matters, including road closings and partitions.

CONTACT

P: 864-242-8310

F: 864-235-8900

aworkman@wyche.com

PRACTICE AREAS

- Alternative Dispute Resolution
- Commercial Real Estate
- Real Estate Finance
- Novel Questions of Law

EDUCATION

- | | |
|---------------------|---|
| 1993, M.Div. | Erskine Theological Seminary, summa cum laude |
| 1976, J.D. | University of South Carolina, magna cum laude; Order of the Wig and Robe; American Jurisprudence Award
Constitutional Law |
| 1974, B.A. | Washington and Lee, magna cum laude, Phi Beta Kappa |

PROFESSIONAL BACKGROUND

1999- Present	Wyche, P.A.
1994- Present	Ordained Minister, Presbyterian Church, U.S.A.
1977-93	Associate, Partner, and Managing Partner, Butler, Means, Evins & Browne, Spartanburg, South Carolina

BAR & COURT ADMISSIONS

- South Carolina Bar, 1977
 - U. S. District Court for South Carolina, 1977
 - Fourth Circuit Court of Appeals, 1977
-

PROFESSIONAL & COMMUNITY ACTIVITIES`

- Court Certified Family and Civil Court Mediator
 - Foothills Presbytery, Minister and Member at Large
 - Foothills Presbytery, Unity and Community Team and Examinations Commission; Mission Team, Member and Former Chair
 - Upstate Mediation Center, Past President and Board Member Emeritus; Volunteer Mediator, 2000-Present
 - Local Washington and Lee Alumni Association, Board Member
 - United Way Campaign, Chair, Clergy Division, 2007-2013
 - Samaritan House Ministry, Board Member, 2006-2009
 - South Carolina Bar Quality of Life Committee, Former Member and Chair, 2000
 - South Carolina Bar Ethics Advisory Committee, Member, 1999-2007
 - Association for Conflict Resolution, Board Secretary
 - Allen Temple Community Economic Development Board, Former Member
 - City of Greenville Board of Zoning Appeals, Former Board Member and Chair, 2003-06
 - Village School (now Oakbrook School) and Habitat for Humanity, Spartanburg, South Carolina Chapter, former Board Member
 - United Ministries Life Skills Program for Greenville, former volunteer math teacher
 - Project Host Soup Kitchen, Greenville, South Carolina, former Board Member
-

PUBLICATIONS & PRESENTATIONS

- Doing Business in South Carolina Guide, author of Section IV: State Trade Regulation and co-author of Section XII: Real Estate and Section XIII: Debtor and Creditor; Insolvency; Fraudulent Conveyances; Liens and Section XVIII: Commercial Law; Miscellaneous
-

HONORS AND AWARDS

2017	Named Greenville Family Law Mediation “Lawyer of the Year” by Best Lawyers
2015 - Present	Listed in Best Lawyers in America

2015 -
Present

Listed in South Carolina Super Lawyers

2014

Greenville County Bar Association Tommy Thomason Award

2014 -
Present

Recognized as "Legal Elite" by the Greenville Business Magazine

1993

Distinguished Service Award given by Spartanburg Jaycees
